

David joined the CASA board in the Spring of 2018, after being an active supporter of CASA for several years. David firmly believes every child should have the ability to grow and learn in a safe atmosphere and to be given every possibility to succeed. As a father of two, David wants to help make sure every child receives the same opportunities as his children.

David grew up in Columbus, Ohio with family ties to Western PA. He graduated from Saint Vincent College in 2010, where he majored in Finance and Economics. He has been a financial advisor with Hefren-Tillotson since 2011 and is based in Greensburg. David is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA®) and a Certified Financial Planner Practitioner (CFP®).

David is an active member of Saint Peter's Parish in Pittsburgh and the United Way of Southwestern PA. David is a board member of the ACME Family Endowment and a former Councilman in Churchill Borough.

David resides in Wilkins Township with his wife Ashleigh and their two children, Harvey and Lenora.
