

Sharon McCullough Nies is a Vice President in the Corporate Banking Division of First Commonwealth Bank. Her office is located in the Bank's Downtown Greensburg Office Building located at 111 South Main Street, Greensburg, PA. Sharon is a longtime employee of First Commonwealth Bank with 37 years of service. She attended Seton Hill University where she received her Bachelor of Science degree in Merchandising.

A lifelong resident of Latrobe, PA, Sharon is active in the local community. She previously served on the Board of the American Heart Association, Westmoreland County Chapter, as secretary. She represented First Commonwealth Bank as a Loaned Executive with the United Way of Westmoreland County and is currently a member of the Women's Leadership Council of the United Way of Westmoreland County. Having previously served on the Winner's Circle of Westmoreland County Award Committee, she is now a member of the YWCA of Westmoreland County Rising Star Award Committee and the Seton Hill University Doug Wood Golf Classic Planning Committee. She is a member of St. Vincent Basilica Parish in Latrobe. Sharon and her husband, Thomas Nies, enjoy volunteering as hosts for the annual St. Anne Home Progressive Dinner.

Sharon's involvement with CASA of Westmoreland began as a committee member for the 2015 Fall Gala. She continues as a member of the Fall Gala Committee and now serves on CASA of Westmoreland's Board of Directors.